Church away weekend 2024

After the success of our church away weekend in June 2023 and the positive feedback from those attending, we have started planning a similar weekend in June this year.

The dates will be Friday 7th to Sunday 9th June, at Fairthorne Manor again, with the opportunity for you to come for the whole weekend (camping for those who wish to) or coming for whole or part days as you are able. Further details will be announced soon but please save the date, consider booking early if planning to camp and please feel free to share any thoughts or ideas you may have with one of the Lay leaders.

Sunday 23rd June – Dedication of Magnolia (Maggie) Cousins during the morning service. This will be followed by a shared lunch. There's a website to help with the bring and share lunch, www.signupgenius.com/go/10C0B49AFA622A5FFC61-48331997-magnolias. They'll also be a paper sign up sheet in the foyer nearer the time.

Saturday 20th July - Canon Dr Hazel Whitehead is running a Study Day at St Barnabas' Church titled Women in the Bible. More details on the flyer on the notice board in the foyer. You would all be most welcome - men as well as women!
